ROUTE OF PAMPLONA'S WALLS AND CITADEL

The "modern" walls of Pamplona were erected after the conquest of Navarre by the Kingdom of Castille in the 16th century. With a length of five kilometres, they are one of the most interesting and best preserved military complexes in Spain, being listed as National Monument. The tour starts at the Fort of San Bartolomé, continues along the bastion of Labrit, the Ronda Obispo Barbazán, Caballo Balnco, the Gate of France and the General Archive of Navarre.
